

Carolyn Minick Mason
Owner and Creative Director

Carolyn Minick Mason is the owner and creative director of Love Notes Event & Occasion Specialists. As a certified professional bridal consultant, Carolyn coordinates weddings on various scales – from an intimately private affair to a lavish soiree with more than 500 attendees. She has extensive experience in destination weddings. Additionally, Carolyn plans and executes corporate, civic and private events, including banquets, concerts, fundraisers and fashion shows. Over the years, she has planned more than a hundred weddings and other events, and boasts an impressive satisfied-client list.

Carolyn has been planning events for more than 15 years. Her extensive experience gives her the distinct ability to marry a client's personal style with trendsetting, artistic design. She works meticulously to ensure that her client's personalities, visions and ideas are enhanced rather than overshadowed by her own signature design.

Prior to launching Love Notes, Carolyn held several positions as legal counsel with increasing responsibilities for major corporations and government entities including Cendant Corporation, Avis Rent A Car and 1199 SEIU New York's Health and Human Service Union.

Carolyn Minick Mason earned her joint juris doctor and master of business administration from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, OH. She received her bachelor of arts degree in International Studies from The American University located in Washington, D.C. Carolyn also completed several courses in wedding and event planning. She is a member of the Association of Bridal Consultants and The Bar of New York State. Carolyn resides in South Orange, New Jersey with her husband Mark, daughter Chloe and son Mark Jr.
