

The Elements

- ♥ Floral Design and Décor: Whether you envision a profusion of tropical foliage and exotic colors, or a palette of pastels and delicate greenery; Love Notes will turn your vision into reality. Flowers should always suit the scale of their setting and the event itself. Centerpieces and floral arrangements that are visually dramatic and appropriate in scale will help focus your guests' attention and add surprising drama to an otherwise blank canvas.
- ♥ Table Setting and Décor: Every element on the table plays a role in creating the perfect setting – one which entices your guests to sit and stay for a while. From the carefully selected china to the flower or antique brooch adorning the silk napkin, Love Notes designs table settings using textures, lighting, fabrics, colors and patterns that match the mood of your reception and underscore your overall design scheme.
- ♥ Menu Planning: Love Notes recognizes that no other single element will leave such a lasting impression on your guests. From the first course, until the last food sets the mood and the tempo for the event. Simple, yet inspired, food will tantalize your guests' palettes and excite them visually. By incorporating food and beverages into your menu that mirror the flavor, spirit, color, aroma and tastes of the season, you are sure to create the WOW factor your guest desire.
- ♥ Lighting: We at Love Notes know the undeniable impact that lighting makes on an event. Whether you want the soft, romantic glow of candlelight or the theatrical, dramatic mood of spotlights, Love Notes knows how to use lighting to create the drama, mystery and illusion that evoke just the right emotion.

The Elements

♥ Music: Do you dream of a trio of harpists serenading you down the aisle or a 50-member gospel chorus helping you recess from the church? Maybe you dream of both! Whatever you dream, Love Notes will help make it a reality. In addition to assisting you with song selection, Love Notes will help you determine and procure the most talented singers and musicians to suit your style and event.

♥ Fashion: Fashion is NEVER to be overlooked by any stretch of the imagination. Love Notes recognizes that a well-dressed wedding party is a critical element of the day. With the assistance of our experienced wardrobe stylists, our clients are able to select the most appropriate attire for the season, time and style of the wedding. Additionally, our stylists can recommend experienced and creative make-up artists and hairstylists to help you achieve the look that you want for your special day.

♥ Invitations and Stationery: Invitations should flirt with your guests. From the moment your guests open their invitation, they should feel seduced into wanting something more. A well designed invitation should give your guests a glimpse into the surprises to come. Though it will peak their curiosity, it should also hide the mysteries that you've chosen not to reveal until your wedding day. Starting with the Save-the-Date and ending with the handwritten thank-you note, Love Notes will introduce you to designers that will customize your stationery according to your preferences and leave your guests longing for more.

The Elements

♥Photography and Videography: Contrary to popular opinion, unforgettable events are created when the magical sentiments of love, commitment and passion are plainly evident in every detail, not by the detail itself. We know that a great photographer or videographer must be able to capture the many, varied expressions of love, jubilation, gratitude, contentment and even somberness that will surface on such an emotional day. Love Notes can help you select the perfect photographer to capture your perfect day. After all, when all the pomp and circumstance surrounding your day is long gone, all that your loved ones and you will have are the fantastic memories. Trust them to someone who knows how to preserve them for eternity.

Details, Details, Details: No detail is too small to warrant our full and undivided attention. Whether it's designing the welcome gifts that your guests will receive upon their arrival at the hotel or selecting the flowers for your centerpieces that most remind your fiancé of your favorite perfume, Love Notes prides itself on creating imaginative and stylish finishing touches to every aspect of your event.
